PFC Reeves was born on September 18th, 1982 in New Albany, Indiana. He joined the military in January of 2003. He would like to thank God first of all for blessing him with the talent of song. He would next like to thank his beautiful wife Zasheba for supporting him in every way possible. Last, but certainly not least, he would like to thank his mother and father for bringing him up the right way. To his family, he loves you all.

SPC Rogers was born in Baltimore, Maryland. He joined the Army in 1998 after graduating from high school. He started singing in church as a child and later took interest in fashion. He wants to thank his parents, Ms. Sue, and his unit for all of their support.

PFC Taylor grew up in Nevada with seven siblings, so his family is very important to him. He has a beautiful wife, Elizabeth, and a son (Joseph) who is on the way. PFC Taylor takes every chance to sing and he has always wanted to get paid to do it. PFC Taylor would like to thank God and his family for giving him the talents and abilities needed to take part in the U.S. Army Soldier Show.

SFC Thompson had been singing all his life. He loves singing and performing and bringing joy into the lives of others. He performed professionally before joining the Army with H.B. Barnum "Life Choir" as the lead singer. God has given him a second chance and blessed him with the chance to perform in the Army Soldier Show. "Let His will be done for the rest of my life."
